

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

The Examiner has objected to the specification, contending that it lacks proper headings as detailed in the Office Action. The Examiner has required the applicants to provide a specification with the proper headings. As such, the applicants have prepared a substitute specification to include those headings and include the phrase "Not Applicable" when appropriate for a particular heading.

A substitute specification is attached herewith, along with an annotated copy showing the changes.